

Something Bad

Wicked

Dr.Dillamond: (spoken) Oh miss Elphaba, the things one hears these days. Dreadful things!

(sung) I've heard of an ox a professor from Crox no longer permitted to teach who has lost all powers of speech.

And an owl in Munchkin loch a vicar with a thriving flock forbidden to preach how he only can screech.

Only rumours but still enough to get pause from anyone with paws something bad is happening in Oz

Elphaba: Something bad happening in Oz

Dr Dillamond: Under the surface, behind the scenes something baaaaad

(spoken) oh I'm sorry - bad

Elphaba:(spoken) Dr Dillamond If something bad is happening to the animals someone has to tell the wizard, that's why we have a wizard

(sung) so nothing bad

Dr Dillamond: (spoken) I hope your right

Both: (sung) Nothing all that bad

Dr Dillamond: (sung) Nothing truly baaaaad

(spoken) sorry bad

Elphaba: (sung) It couldn't happen here in Oz
