

I am the silent son
I am the only one
Staying home today
I'd lift you up if I knew
How to do the things that I
Wish I'd do

Can I learn to wait for my life
The more I get the more that I
Want for myself
And yet the water flows on
Feeding the mud now that I'm Gone forever

Sink into the ground to below
The less you say the less that
You get wrong
I'll try a new face for now
Trying this new face that
I can't see

Don't get me wrong now
It all flows on
Don't get me wrong now
It all flows on
