You speak in tongues I can't resist You run me 'round I cannot think

We're driving to your parents house just for a visit and I'm sl eeping in your brother's bed

Won't you sneak into my room and climb under the covers talk no nsense in your sleep Oh

You come unguarded once again

And I can't wait to let you in

We're driving to your parents house just for a visit and I'm sl eeping in your brother's bed

Won't you sneak into my room and climb under the covers talk no nsense in your sleep Oh

You've got some charm I must admit

Don't let me wreck myself again

Driving to your parents house just for a visit and I'm sleeping in your brother's bed

Won't you sneak into my room and climb under the covers talk no nsense in your sleep Oh
