

A sharp edge for homeland,
I won't escape this
Comforting and stuck life,
Shall we fall to leave our
Mind enclosed happiness
Illusion, hidden horizon?
Before me a collapsed
Road to nowhere
I can just see...
Temptation, obsession,
Could this be the way?
Price to pay, dangerous ways...
We will jump to leave our own life
Not as we are supposed to
But as we hoped.
Leaving our past behind
And reach at last
Our deepest dreams!
Dive! Take your chance and fight the limits of your mind. Keep your dreams alive, run and dive!
Once in your life time, will you cross the line and reach what you can't find?
As our fears get stronger,
Our soul get closer.
Colliding true feelings,
We're falling to trade our own life
Not as we are supposed to
But as we hoped.
Leaving our past behind
And reach at last
Our deepest dreams!
Dive! Take your chance and fight the limits of your mind. Keep your dreams alive, run and dive!
Once in your life time, will you cross the line and reach what
you can't find?
Dive! Take your chance and fight the limits of your mind. Keep your dreams alive, run and dive!
Once in your life time, will you cross the line and reach what
you can't find?
Dive! Take your chance and fight the limits of your mind. Keep your dreams alive, run and dive!
Once in your life time, will you cross the line and reach what
