

Feeling enclosed, dreaming of a whole new world,
Is there a way you may follow, my love, through space, split paths, wild start?
But I'll go, living my dream cause there's no other chance!
And I know there will be no room for our love...
Scared by the scars of a chasm of loneliness,
I will stay among the stars.
Through the intricacies of destiny, we can't live an unshared dream forever.
Narrow lifetime, hope in decline, summoning an unfailing wish of deliverance.
Through the selfishness of destiny, we could live led by our dreams forever.
Narrow lifetime, hope in decline, summoning an unfailing wish of deliverance.
Feeling enclosed, dreaming of a whole new world,
Is there a way you may follow, my love, through space, split paths, wild start?
But I'll stay, leaving my dreams,
Cause there's no other chance.
And I know there must be a room for our love.
Scared by the scars of an unfulfilled dream, I will stay forever yours!
Through the intricacies of destiny, we can't live an unshared dream forever.
Narrow lifetime, hope in decline, summoning an unfailing wish of deliverance.
Through the selfishness of destiny, we could live led by our dreams forever.
Narrow lifetime, hope in decline, summoning an unfailing wish of deliverance.
