

Can You Hear Me? (Ayayaya)

Wiley

I was on a path to the limelight
Now i'm on another one it's a night flight
When they say i'm a star i say thank you It's all due to the scenes that i ran through
So i keep flyin the flags for all people
No messing about we're all equal Vibe alive in the club when i roll in
I get around with the crowd when i'm roaming

Everybody right now can you hear me
Through the speakers turn me up
if you hear me
ayayaya ayayaya
Everybody right now can you hear me
Through the speakers turn me up
if you hear me
ayayaya ayayaya

They should know i bring vibes on a club night
Keep the crowd hyped up brother party red
She wanna say words in my earlobe Reminds me there's an hour of the party left

See the fireworks,celebration,team winning the Grey Goose amazing
Send them Jaeger bombs i got a craving
So many woman i don't wanna stop raving

They should know i got tunes for the gyal dem Ones the ladies are there see the man dem reach
They wanna leave there with a number Check the peng ting she's gonna hang with me

I'm skanking all round the party i'm skanking
I got girls to the left and girls to the right
When we're at the bar we ain't ramping

Everybody right now can you hear me
Through the speakers turn me up
if you hear me
ayayaya ayayaya
Everybody right now can you hear me
Through the speakers turn me up
if you hear me
ayayaya ayayaya

Wiley called me on the iPhone
He said get my passport told me to come true
Put your sun cream in your suitcase
When i arrive causing a heat wave too

Got my SnapBack and my vest on Looking at the hot girl with the red dress on Light skin with a beautiful body like Kim So i had to get my Kanye West on

She told me she's feeling my jewellery
She said that she's in love with my Jesus piece
I told her to look again closely
It's not Jesus baby it's JME

And i was like babe come over
I don't bite girl come a little closer
Come a little closer
I don't bite girl come a little closer

Through the speakers turn me up
if you hear me
ayayaya ayayaya

You know i don't usually party
But Skepta and Wiley said it's a hype
I can't find my phone or my car keys
Like Zippy Tafari said on the mic

The vibe is off the richter
And i can't even tweet a picture I'm on the dance floor the joke is i never had a drink but i'm acting the drunkest

She's staring like i'm a weirdo
Or then again maybe she likes me
I'm not supposed to be here though Haven't got a wrist band for the VIP

No triple a pass but i'm partying with the stars
Yep,i can't complain i just enjoy while it lasts

Everybody right now can you hear me
Through the speakers turn me up
if you hear me
ayayaya ayayaya
Everybody right now can you hear me
Through the speakers turn me up
if you hear me
ayayaya ayayaya
