

Getalong Gang

Wiley

Eskiboy

Playtime Is Over

And I know you think like, we're all in the Getalong Gang

And we're happy together but we're not

You know why?

I'm reason grime is a name brand

Ever since you was spitting bars

I been raining down just like Rain Man

From the [?] old school like ray bans

You went jail for a bag, I've had eight bags

Just 'cus you bored up Walker, that don't mean I gotta rate man

I can relate man

But it's my war and I don't even hate man

There's no way a [?] can hear me and say you don't rate man

I'm A Sinner was a hit from the day I vocaled it

Simple and plain

Stand up stand up, it's hard to waste man like me, ain't you noticed

I cater for everybodie's tastes and the levels so high you can't win just on e wasteman

You gotta win bare, and if you appear on [?] it's big that won't even save m an

You might think we're the getalong gang but, half of us don't getalong gang

I don't wanna start putting metal on man

I walk alone not in a getalong gang

You might think we're the getalong gang but, half of us don't getalong gang

I don't wanna start putting metal on man

I walk alone not in a getalong gang

[?] G's too serious, Wiley's a joker

G plays Kano, Wiley plays poker

Poke a hundred holes in your character

Kano laughs he controls your character

I'm a real mic man not a barrister

I should be the Movements manager

I don't wanna join them but I like saying f*ck radio maybe 'cus I said it be fore them

Let's go on tour then

Crash on every stage that we hit

I'm brave with a gun, better with my fists

On stage with a gun, I don't wanna get nicked

Don't string me out 'cus the barrel holds six

I'll, empty the clip like

Taking the piss like

I come equip for the war, I'm sick like

You don't wanna get down right now

You're a clown right now

And I'm off with your chick like

You might think we're the getalong gang but, half of us don't getalong gang

I don't wanna start putting metal on man

I walk alone not in a getalong gang

You might think we're the getalong gang but, half of us don't getalong gang

I don't wanna start putting metal on man

I walk alone not in a getalong gang

Don't be offended
By the way I landed
I'm outstanding
I dig deep if I'm stranded
Don't care what the baddest man did
I'm badder when I'm on zero like before I landed
Right handed, VIP bandit
Left hand guess what Guess watches wearing
Plain black with a new leather skin with a question mark in the middle of the bezel
Don't be alarmed if you see me buss garms that won't be on the self til, next year March
But this 16 bar is, hotter than tar
I'm a star with a near off bar
Got beats and bars and I'm Gonna start smashing up cars
If you owe me a penny better pay it up fast p*ssyholes try to bread they get parred
But they didn't know I was street smart got the coldest heart

You might think we're the getalong gang but, half of us don't getalong gang
I don't wanna start putting metal on man
I walk alone not in a getalong gang
You might think we're the getalong gang but, half of us don't getalong gang
I don't wanna start putting metal on man
I walk alone not in a getalong gang
