Grew Up In

Yeah, I grew up in Bow E-thrizzy Home of Maniac, home of Tinchy, home of Dizzee If you don't get it then you're gonna be without That's why I fly around and make myself busy Complacent shotta gets robbed for a belly This shit's going on, but I don't mean telly When the rain falls, you can't be saved by wellies A kid walks in, starts waving a semi Badman, he ain't afraid of any Expensive watch, now why have I got it? Furthermore, fuck that, I'm a shot it You know why, blood? Cause I don't want it Go and look a next property, swap it I deal with change in a pattern Too many girls buy jewellery in Hatton New generation's here, what you saying? We're gonna see when I pass you the baton I grew up in south west London, home of the brave Home to the roadside Gs, So Solid UK Be loud and clear when you're calling my name Shut down the club, live show then I cut, I'm the lord of the r ave From a place where your big bad brother can't save you Where the olders are washed and the young Gs out on the block w ho want grief Get out of my seat, what the fuck did you bring to the table? From a place where they think that you're rich if you ever get signed to a label Last night, I fell asleep with the engine running Kick down your door, then my bredrin's running I don't like that yout, I don't care who [?] I don't know that yout, don't care about your cousin Got a photoshoot, whole ends is coming, rudeboy, you ain't got enough class Your boy's on form this year, fall back, you ain't got enough b ars 20 man deep on a night out, buy out the bar, you ain't got enou qh staff Man don't even talk to you much, but you talk too much, all you niggas just bark
