Hello
Yo

It's just the music I'm into
It's just the music I like
So come off the hype
Yo, listen

It's just the music I'm into
It's like reflection of the places I've been to
All the situations I've been through Put 'em together, that's the music I'm into
It's just the music I'm into
Of the genre grime, I'm the king too
People say they're kings
And I say "what have you been through?"
Got a valid answer, then you might be a king too
Yeah I can sing too
I ain't gonna front, that wasn't what I was into Drop, she's flowing now, that's what she's into
A row of kings in the game, yeah I got a king crew
Four exes batch is still in my back
Gotta tell her every week, no, I don't wanna link you
Now I've moved onto for good
So I tell 'em straight up, it's just the music I'm into

It's just the music I like
So don't tell me what music to write to, alright dude?
Even forgetting I liked to
My dad told me I got the right to
Do the music I like
So don't tell me what music to write to, alright dude?
Even forgetting I liked to
My dad told me I got the right to

I'm the musical type
Listen to music all night
If I abused it over youth then it wouldn't be right
Imagine me, I'm on this musical hype
Knowing I'm never going back
Because I'm gonna be pursuing my life
Is that alright?
If it ain't, then I'm afraid I can't help ya
Why?
Because right now, I'm not on a helping vibe
Forget the labels and the shelving vibe
Because right now, I'm on a wealthy vibe

It's just the music I like
So don't tell me what music to write to, alright dude?
Even forgetting I liked to
My dad told me I got the right to
Do the music I like
So don't tell me what music to write to, alright dude?
