

Time Flies By

Wiley

Time flies by, doesn't wave in you
Should've known better, shouldn't waste it
Trying to catch up to the place where I should've been
There ain't no weather I wouldn't face
I'm a soldier
Street knowledge is amazing
You should've known better, shouldn't test it
When I get where I'm going to
Gonna be better than the rest
I'm a soldier

Highly trained
Since Wiley came, the vibe ain't the same
Don't live by me, I live by the game
And it's a gamble, unsure pay
My song's going to leave, they wanna stay
They're not sitting on shells, they get played
Won't complain, I've already been paid
I'm paid in full still, like when the police kick off the door
And they didn't find nothing in a rave
I tell a prick stop bluffing with the blade
I ain't half way, I'm already made
Enemies could see me any day
But when the sun's out, they're sitting in the shade
I'm on an R6 and you're on a Fireblade
And I want a higher pay
Because I put a lot of work in, it's working
Don't let the game fly away

Time flies by, doesn't wave in you
Should've known better, shouldn't waste it
Trying to catch up to the place where I should've been
There ain't no weather I wouldn't face
I'm a soldier
Street knowledge is amazing
You should've known better, shouldn't test it
When I get where I'm going to
Gonna be better than the rest
I'm a soldier

2-9, approaching
If he's gonna kill you, then why approach him?
Why provoke him?
Try phoning up all the old kings
They're not giving a shit, that's the old ting
Bare new tings
Getting more money than a city bank is holding
Sign Wiley and try to mold him
But I would've been happy with a one likkle Rolex tune
But the label, they got too excited
Man are just hyping
Band want money but they're never gonna get it out of my ting
Told the whole team F off
I'm not the one gonna be the one you get a cheque off
Told the music lawyer, better step off
Fall if you get off
Because right now, I'm in the stage

I don't need you
Stay in the starting blocks when I wet off

Time flies by, doesn't wave in you
Should've known better, shouldn't waste it
Trying to catch up to the place where I should've been
There ain't no weather I wouldn't face
I'm a soldier
Street knowledge is amazing
You should've known better, shouldn't test it
When I get where I'm going to
Gonna be better than the rest
I'm a soldier
