

Baby's Eyes

Will Hoge

Whatever came before you
I'm just glad it's gone
I was lost, couldn't find my way
Now I'm right where I belong

Whatever pain that I felt
I'll feel it more
You blew in like the breeze, with the keys
Unlocked me like a door

Here I am with no disguise
I see the best of me shine through in baby's eyes

Love ain't always easy
It don't always last
I've broken my fair share of hearts and promises in the past

I've watched love turn into lies
I never wanna see that kind of hurt in baby's eyes, baby's eyes
Break my heart to see that hurt in baby's eyes

I've watched love turn into lies
I never wanna see that kind of hurt in baby's eyes, baby's eyes
Break my heart to see that hurt in baby's eyes, baby's eyes
Don't wanna see that hurt in baby's eyes
