

The Last Thing I Needed

Will Hoge

Last thing I needed was distraction
I just wanted numbers I could call
And I thought that was satisfaction
Last thing I needed was to fall

Last thing I needed was a woman
To make me feel the way you do
I didn't know that it was coming
Last thing I needed was you

You stand beside me through thick and thin
You're my beginning that has no end
You're my lover and my best friend
And you're the last thing I needed

I used to think I needed money
And you used to think I needed help
Well, looking back now ain't that funny
You know me better than myself

You stand beside me through thick and thin
You're my beginning that has no end
You're my lover and my best friend
And you're the last thing I needed

You're my forever 'til the end of time
Even on my bad days we're still doing fine
And I'm all yours and you're all mine
And you're the last thing I needed

You're the last thing I needed
