

(This Ain't) An Original Sin

Will Hoge

I came in here lookin' for a lover
But now I think I'll settle for a friend
And if it goes right I could take you home tonight
And try to make it worth the trouble we put in

And I saw you standin' there lookin' for somethin'
I'm fairly certain I'm exactly what you need
No ma'am I ain't claimin' I'm a doctor
But I know a good old-fashioned cure-all homemade remedy

So we won't be the first ones
Tryin' out this medicine
They've been usin' it for years
All our parents, all our peers, and all our friends
This ain't an original sin
This ain't an original sin
It ain't original

I don't need to be Ferdinand Magellan
Jumpin' first into far-off distant lands
Neil Armstrong'll always be the first one
To take that tiny little giant step for all of man

So we won't be the first ones
There's lots of steps to stumble in
We've been doin' it for years
So we might as well just do it all again
Yeah, this ain't an original sin
This ain't an original sin
This ain't original

To hell with the snake and the apple and Adam and Eve
If they've done what they were s'posed to, there wouldn't be yo u, there wouldn't be me

This ain't original sin
This ain't an original sin
This ain't an original sin
This ain't an original sin
No, no, no, no, no, no, no
