

Til I Do It Again

Will Hoge

Went out last night for a little fun
Next thing I know I saw the rising sun
Now the whole world's spinnin' and I can't tell
Have I been to Heaven, have I been through hell?

Oh my, I hear the church bells ring
Saturday night's spilled into Sunday again
Tell you that I'm sorry and I know it's a sin
That's the last time I do it 'til I do it again

Woke up this morning and it's just the same
Head pounding like a coal fired train
Empty bottles are scattered all across the floor
Whose house is this, I can't find the door

Oh my, I hear the church bells ring
Saturday night's spilled into Sunday again
Tell you that I'm sorry and I know it's a sin
That's the last time I do it 'til I do it again
Last time I do it 'til I do it again

Well, I don't know why I keep running
I don't know why I can't slow down
Well, I can't slow down

I think tonight I might slow it down
Have a nice quiet evening instead of going downtown
But the call of the women, the whiskey and wine
Made a fool out of me every damn time

Oh my, I hear the church bells ring
Saturday night's spilled into Sunday again
Tell you that I'm sorry and I know it's a sin
That's the last time I do it 'til I do it again

Oh my, I hear the church bells ring
Saturday night's spilled into Sunday again
Tell you that I'm sorry and I know it's a sin
That's the last time I do it 'til I do it again
Last time I do it 'til I do it again
Last time I do it 'til I do it
Oh you know I'll do it again
