

Harvesting Digital Children

Willy Mason

The kids are growing you better lock us down there's a war in our heads but you can't hear a sound.
And now i'm lying awake i can't sleep at night get me out of this place somtehing's not right, not right look out, behind your back look out, the cards are stacked and you don't know what you're running from look me in the eye and tell me i'm alright look me in the eye and tell me i'm just fine

look me in the eye and tell me i'm alright
look me in the eye and tell me i'm just fine
