When a woman walk, mmmmm
She set my little soul on fire
The way she talk, she my heart desire
Once you leave me, I do believe I'll die
And I got the call in the midnight hour

Some mighty sweet thing to know
That you got someone by your side
That ain't ever gonna let you down
And when all your friends, done turn their back on you
She'll be right there by your side
Walk with you, to talk with you
Let me tell you one more time
