

All I Ever Wanted

Winger

All I ever wanted...

Valerine, please tell me, why you never knew my name
Not a word, all my letters, my obsession I can't explain

Somewhere in my world of dreams and somewhere outside of your frame

I'm dreaming that you feel the same, secretly
All I ever wanted, was me and you, only you
All I ever wanted, to be more, more than a stranger

I need so much to get closer, follow you from town to town
Your eyes are my prison, your life is my hunting ground

Somewhere in my world of dreams I watch you lay there next to me

It's every wish I wish to be, secretly
All I ever wanted, was me and you, only you
All I ever wanted, to be more, more than a stranger

Somewhere in my world of dreams and somewhere outside of your frame

I'm dreaming that you feel the same
All I ever wanted, was me and you, only you
All I ever wanted, to be more, more than a stranger
All I ever wanted

Valerine, please tell me, why you never knew my name
(All I ever wanted)
Not a word, all my letters, my obsession I can't explain
(All I ever wanted)
You're all I ever wanted
