

Feeding Frenzy

Winger

Got blood, and guts got a real survivor...

Killers and crooks - evening's looking brighter dishin' off the inside of somebody Else's life

And we can tune in later for the big disaster yeah, it's what we're after

Everybody's watching, everybody's listening
the whole world's tunin' and we wouldn't wanna miss it praise the re-creator for the modern gladiator
everybody's tuning in so let the feeding frenzy begin

Got superstars who will make you fall in love with stand on the secrets we can tear them down with who cares if it's lies if it's just somebody else's life.

And if you stay tuned maybe we can see that wacko in a body bag
(HOO)

Everybody's watching, everybody's listening
the whole world's tunin' and we wouldn't wanna miss it
praise the re-creator for the modern gladiator
everybody's tuning in so let the feeding frenzy begi

And when you're bored and empty they got hell of plenty God! Entertainment!
Give us something crazy coz..

Everybody's watching, everybody's listening
the whole world's tunin' and we wouldn't wanna miss it
praise the re-creator for the modern gladiator
everybody's tuning and the freakier the better

Everybody's watching, everybody's listening
the whole world's tunin' and we wouldn't wanna miss it
praise the re-creator for the modern gladiator
everybody's tuning in so let the feeding frenzy begin
