

Smoke Bongs-sing Songs-lost At Sea

Wingnut Dishwashers Union

Well, I've been smokin' bongs,
And I've been singin' songs,
And I've been livin' for too long, oh, don't you know.
And well, I don't wanna smoke this bong,
And I don't wanna sing this song,
But we've all got obligations, don't you know.

Well, I've been lost at sea for a thousand years,
Just lookin' for someone that I could hold dear.
She might be long dead by now. But I still search some how.
And true love, well, that never can die
But I wish that it could because then so could I.
I don't know if I am a ghost 'cause there's nobody left to ask.
