

To the deepest ocean floor
Many hundred years ago
Sank a beauty of the sea
Her name was "Semeni"
Now the Sailors have a tale
In hopeless times they see her sails
And If she sings her eerie tune
To follow her she beckons you

The sky is black the thunder roars
Colossal waves, a screaming storm
"Man the deck!
Prepare the sails!
She's claiming us!"
The captain wails

Out from the dark, a symphony
Into our hearts, now we're in need
Of a miracle
Great sails of white, show the way
Into the night, take us away
Oh "Semeni"

With Strength in heart we gave our all,
A chance to see our kin once more
"But she's too strong!
All hope is gone!
This is the end
God save our souls!"

Out from the dark, a symphony
Into our hearts, now we're in need
Of a miracle
Great sails of white, show the way
Into the night, take us away
Oh "Semeni"

We bowed our heads, this was
Defeat for us
And tried with God to find our
Peace save us.
So as we prayed a tune was heard
That brought our hearts
Back from the dead!
As we raised our heads to see
Her name was painted "Semeni"
A ship so great as bright as day
And as she sailed the storm gave way
"Follow her!"
Out from the dark, a symphony
Into our hearts, now we're in need
Of a miracle
Great sails of white, show the way
Into the night, take us away
Oh "Semeni"
