

Battlecry

Winterstorm

Out of the darkness there comes a new foe hate and brutality is what they show marching in line and gathering up that's what they do, they cannot be stopped.

Awoken by greed that fills up your heart the picture tha hate you've had from the start there is no way out as they're coming for you they are the threat, you know what I do.

They make no convicts thats their code this is the destiny that you evoke can you see the deadly gaze in their eyes?
Your ears will hear their battlecries.

Listen to what I have to say
hear my words as I will lead the way.
Follow me and we'll never be appart
just stab your blade right into their hearts.

They are the shadows that nobody knows the annihilation that constantly grows merciless they are now seeking for blood lifeless bodies sink down in the mud.

There's no escape and you cannot hide there is no cure, only one glimpse of light you know that they are now ending your lies the last thing you hear is their battlecries.

Listen to what I have to say
hear my words as I will lead the way.
Follow me and we'll never be appart
just stab your blade right into their hearts.

All of your longing for power and gold is decaying, there's nothing to hold they can soon fulfill their horrible quest until they've reached it, they will not rest.

Look at your hands, they've bloody and red isn't that what the prophecy said?
You are the closen one who ends their lives let them hear your battlecry.

Listen to what I have to say
hear my words as I will lead the way.
Follow me and we'll never be appart
just stab your blade right into their hearts.
