Far Away

Winterstorm

far away to the mountain you have to go far away where the ground is covered in snow you will find your love and punish all of those who stand in your way blessed by the bears I am on my way to find the parts of what went astray though I don't know if I will suffice I head for the land of fire and ice

I'm searching I'm seeking for Tira my true love please hold out I'll go on for evermore

FAR AWAY TO THE MOUNTAIN I HAVE TO GO FAR AWAY WHERE THE GROUND IS COVERED IN SNOW I WILL FIND MY LOVE AND PUNISH ALL OF THOSE WHO STAND IN MY WAY

a journey to the unknown to foreign lands afar until the northern winds moan to find his heart in this land you have to go the mountain far away take your sword and take the stone and find the parts astray
