

Silk Skin Paws

Wire

You have nothing to fear
I'm just making enquiries
Dog bone hunting
Gives you back to yourself
Standing before me

The gargoye turns
Jutting jaws and
The stubble burns

I shift the blame
To the worm in the bottle
I shift the blame
To anyone standing before me

I check-up the once over
Give yourself an opening
Keep your mouth shut
In the event of an accident
Contact the following

A certain air
An invading smile
Inbreeding seals the flaw

I shift the blame
To the worm in the bottle
I shift the blame
To anyone standing before me

Silk skin paws
Hang by both feet
Embracing the world
Hang the expense
Breuel's cut corners

Wring out the senses
I have nothing like it
I've seen nothing like it

I shift the blame
To the worm in the bottle
I shift the blame
To anyone standing before me
