

Blue Horizon

Wishbone Ash

The mindless mind is something to seek
There's nothing to fear and no words to speak
Silence that neither affirms or denies
No verbal expression makes sense of this life

Living with only compassion in mind
No teacher, no leader, a time beyond time
On the road to love everyone will arrive
To the essence of being, the meaning of life

I've got my eyes on the blue horizon
I'm a seeker you see, enlightened and free
I've got my eyes on the blue horizon
I'm a seeker you see, enlightened and free

The mindless mind is something to seek
There's nothing to fear and no words to speak
Silence that neither affirms or denies
No verbal expression makes sense of this life

I've got my eyes on the blue horizon
I'm a seeker you see, enlightened and free
I've got my eyes on the blue horizon
I'm a seeker you see, enlightened and free
