

Invisible Thread

Wishbone Ash

People tell me there's an invisible thread
But I let it play out and the feeling's dead
We are all bathed in the light of the divine
You are forever with me on that line

And I wanna know if you're truly free
Time will tell
You know so well
What you mean to me

We had no chance to say goodbye
I left you for darkening skies
I let my head rule my heart
And now we find ourselves apart

But I wanna know, who you're talking to
Time will tell
You know so well
What you mean to me

Good advice is hard to come by
I know you been around town to try
Your so-called friends opened their doors
Their curiosity piqued for sure

I wanna know if I'm truly free
Time will tell
You know so well
What you mean to me
