

Man with No Name

Wishbone Ash

I come from nowhere I'm here to enlist you
Someone with no fear who cannot resist you
I'm an observer, a witness to wonder
My love's eternal, just like rolling thunder

I'm a free spirit and not who you think
Will not confirm, I'm out of sync
I got no secrets, I got nothing to hide
I'm on a journey from darkness to light

Mysterious stranger, please tell us your game
You're promising love to the world
But you're only a brief burning flame
You're a man with no name

I come from nowhere, I'm here to enlist you
I'm someone with no fear who cannot resist you
I'm an observer
A witness to wonder
My love is eternal
Just like rolling thunder

Mysterious stranger, please tell us your game
You're promising love to the world
But you're only a brief burning flame
You're a man with no name (No name, no name, no name...)

Mysterious stranger, please tell us your game
You're promising love to the world
But you're only a brief burning flame
Just a man with no name
You're a man with no name (No name, no name, no name...)
