

Migrant Worker

Wishbone Ash

Migrant worker, working overseas
You got a dream, but it's bringing you to your knees
In a cheap hotel, at the whim of a man
Living in limbo far away in a foreign land

Migrant worker, living in a foreign land
You're disconnected, moving on shifting sands
You got a family, with their basic needs
We got society that's bringing us to our knees

Bringing pressure, pressure to bear
So much pressure going nowhere

Bringing pressure, pressure to bear
So much pressure going nowhere
Bringing pressure, pressure to bear
So much pressure going nowhere

You got a family, but your over seas
So many problems bringing you to your knees
You're disconnected, at the whim of a man
Living in limbo, moving on shifting sands
