

Reason to Believe

Wishbone Ash

I guess I was a fool
Some would say naive
I should have taken good advice
But I wanted to believe

I grasped for something new
A ripe forbidden fruit
Was tempted by the thrill of the chase
And crushed in my pursuit

Reason to believe
Reason to believe
Reason to believe
Reason to believe
Reason to believe
Reason to believe
Reason to believe
Reason to believe
Reason to believe
Reason to believe
Reason to believe
Reason to believe
Reason to believe
Reason to...

I offer you these words
When you pursue your dream
Sometimes the wish that is fulfilled
Is not quite what it seems

So read between the lines
It's just a masquerade
Try to solve the cryptic code
The games that people play

Reason to believe
Reason to believe
Reason to believe
Reason to believe
Reason to believe
Reason to believe
Reason to believe
Reason to believe
Reason to believe
Reason to believe
Reason to believe
Reason to believe
Reason to believe
Reason to believe
Reason to believe
Reason to believe
Reason to believe (Show me a reason to believe)
Reason to believe
Reason to believe
Reason to believe (Reason to believe)
Reason to believe
Reason to believe (Now just one reason)
Reason to believe

Reason to believe (One)
Reason to believe
Reason to believe
Reason to believe...
