

Deconstruction

Witchcraft

Say me mister officer, what is it that you want from me?
I'm just another brick in this fascist regime society
I stand naked and abused

Utopian idealist breaking ways for all to see Deconstructed patterns manifest in broken helpless souls
Inspiration draws us all from amused, abused, and disconnect
Suspicion and coalition hold their hands when trust is gone

Satan is amused

If our leader,
descended from above.
The altruistic ones,
would cherish in their hearts.

Decide and conduct
Correct your misconduct
Be brave and be strong
Hold do no other wrong

Definition of your mission is rules of glass eternally
Tell me why then I am unaffected by your gravity

Tension blows a fuse
