Wicked

Witchery

Winged godless creatures they fill the blackest night Vandals of divine no rush of evil might A frightening streak of rampage Screams of pain and death They're swarming all around Nowhere to catch your breath

Wicked spirits around us storming Will we ever survive their closing attack

With buzzsaw razor anger they slice and cut their way Breeding hate and chaos brings forth the final day

Wicked spirits around us storming Will we ever survive their closing attack

Blasphemic martyrs oblivious to mercy Voracious icons submit to an unstoppable force

Wicked spirits around us storming Will we ever survive their closing attack

Will we survive! Will we survive! We we survive the attack!
