

Destiny

Wizard

I climb the mountain
I look forward every day!
It's a long and rocky path
But I don't want to stay

The blood inside me
The strength and the will!
They give me the power to be strong as steel

Nothing stops me, my path appears
The aim is my destiny
My wings shine in the glow of light
Let's fight

Destiny, traitor and liar
No one will stop me now
With the power of metal in my heart
No one will stop me now
I hold the flag

One hand shows my fate
The other shares my dreams
The battlefield of hate
It is never too late!

The battle rolls on!
I believe in myself!
I am the god I adore!
Power to the gods!

I'm not on my knees for long!
My aim is my destiny!
I believe in my dreams!

Destiny, thunder and lightning
No one will stop me now
With the power inside me and the will
No one will stop me now
I hold the flag
