

Metal Feast

Wizard

We are on the road again to celebrate life
The bags are packed and we are ready for the night
In a few hours we will arrive
The fire inside is burning alive

We rise our weapons, ready to strike!
We fight for the dream, metal inside!

We rise our weapons, ready to strike!
We fight for the dream, metal inside!

As soon as we arrive we unpack the steel
The pounding drums - This is for real
Now we are ready to conquer the feast!
We go into battle and unleash the beast!

We rise our weapons, ready to strike!
We fight for the dream, metal inside!

We rise our weapons, ready to strike!
We fight for the dream, metal inside!

Every moment every second laughing and crying!
United we stand!
When it's over, when it's done, we carry the moments!
Live for the moment before you die!
