

White Wolf

Wizard

High in the mountains near the sky
There lives a shy white wolf
A white brightness - no one has seen
Him before

He is a bounder
So far away from his pride
He is a rogue
His red diamond eyes glow mystically
In the night

No demon
No monster
Nothing seems bad inside
No creature of darkness
He is quiet

War and lies - I can not live in
In your world - also I miss you
Blood and hate - is all they live for
I want more

Some hundred years ago
He lived in a kingdom
The flesh and blood of others was his elixir

His cannibal tribe
Ready for destruction
The wasted land and thousand bodies
Opened his eyes

War, lies - I can not live in
Your world - also I miss you
Blood, hate - is all they live for
I want more
