

I'm sitting alone by my window at home see the sun shining bright but I can't get no light oh it hurts me so strong, tell me what went wrong tell me why this must be why did this happen to me oh ooh I know that you're dead but I won't realize I know you were fat, you were all oversized You've been mean all the time, so I had to kill you after that I felt fine but now I'm missing you ah uh please tell me What else should I do--just waiting for you make my dreams all come true-- I'm waiting for you I know that you're dead...
Will she ever come back, six feet under she lies Can she dig herself out, can she find her way home to me...
Shanananana--waiting for you
