

Deadweight

Wolves At The Gate

(Don't stop bleeding out the pride in me
Don't stop bleeding out the pride in me)
Don't stop till my eyes will see it

These hands are calloused throwing stone after stone
The one in my chest was the only one I left alone
I bound the reach of Your mercy in my heart, in my heart
Putting a price upon the grace that's fully free

I still choke upon the words I'd spoken
I can feel the way they cut me open

Don't stop bleeding out the pride in me
Oh how I desperately need it
Fix my eyes on love that's fully free
Don't stop till my eyes will see it

This heart is heavy sinking further below
There isn't a way out unless You take my hand
Still sinking further below
Unless You shed this deadweight
Deadweight
Putting a price upon the grace that's fully free

I still choke upon the words I'd spoken
I can feel the way they cut me open

Don't stop bleeding out the pride in me
Oh how I desperately need it
Fix my eyes on love that's fully free
Don't stop till my eyes will see it

(Sinking further, further below)
Dead
(Sinking further, further below)
Weight

This heart is heavy sinking further below
There isn't a way out unless You crush this stone

Still sinking further below
Unless You shed this deadweight
Deadweight
Putting a price upon the grace that's fully free

Don't stop bleeding out the pride in me
Oh how I desperately need it
Fix my eyes on love that's fully free
Don't stop till my eyes will see it

Don't stop! Until my eyes will see it
Don't stop! Until I live and breathe it
Don't stop! Until my eyes will see it
Don't stop! Don't stop!
