

Eulogies

Wolves At The Gate

Watch it burn
Flames return

I'm left with a eulogy
Three years just wither in the background
The last hour of Your misery pours out a final cry
Listen to my words, make the pain depart (Pain depart)
Watch it take ablaze in the weakest heart (Weakest heart)

Such a violent eulogy is tearing my heart out (Tearing my heart out)
With this doubt and mystery I'm falling apart now (Falling apart now)
A final eulogy

I carry doubts full of darkness that take away my breath
On roads that lead to the valley of shadows and of death
Eyes fade to grey and fall below
Here lays a withered soul

Such a violent eulogy is tearing my heart out (Tearing my heart out)
With this doubt and mystery I'm falling apart now (Falling apart now)
A final eulogy

A bloody tree and empty tomb
Sends roots below for life to bloom
Every single word You said, it made the fear depart
Every drop of blood You shed inside my weakened heart
Bringing life to all the dead, I felt it burning
My heart, it burns, it burns with love

Such a violent eulogy is tearing my heart out (Tearing my heart out)
With this doubt and mystery I'm falling apart now (Falling apart now)
Beautiful eulogy
A violent eulogy (Violent eulogy)
Claims my victory (Victory)
My heart, it burns, it burns with love
My heart, it burns a beautiful eulogy
