

Weight of Glory

Wolves At The Gate

Hold fast hope
Hold fast hope

Brace for impact
These dark days, they will grip and chain you
Fight until the prison breaks
Face the onslaught of the plague
We will fight off the darkness even if it breaks our flesh
Flesh and blood will die as we rise above (Rise above)
Shadows turn to dust as we rise above (Rise above)

Rise, rise, rise above
We rise, rise, rise, rise above
Go

Hands that I see holding on to me
They are pierced from all the suffering on that cursed tree
All this suffering momentary
Harbingers for a weight of glory
All my darkest sins and my misery (Misery)
Thrown into the depth of the deepest sea (Deepest sea)

We rise, rise, rise above

Hold fast while bracing for impact, it's momentary
Hold fast while facing the onslaught, it's momentary
The Author and Finisher has claimed victory
Defeated and destroyed the adversary

Still coming for me
Still coming so
Fight like we're living out our last days
All the blood and tears will just fade
To a memory that just slips and fades away

Fight like we're living out our last days
All the blood and tears will just fade
To a memory that just slips and fades away (Slips and fades away)
Fight like we're living out our last days
All the blood and tears will just fade
To a memory that just slips and fades away (Slips and fades away)
