

Hollow Roots

Wormrot

Unity all these years
We've been casted away
Thrown away
Covered up by motion blur
Never to return again

Outcasted by people who initially had our backs
Judging us with fatal words, fuck your roots
You can have it back

Sickened by all the fucking politics
Too much words, too much fucking bullshit

No point of venting for this fucking long
But the damage has been done
We're not giving up
We are still standing strong
