

Against All Odds

Wynardtage

We stand alone
No sign
No warmth
We stand alone
No joy
Pure dark

We stand alone against the world
We stand alone against the fall
We stand alone against the pain
We stand alone against all odds

Against all odds
Against all sense
Against the world
United again
I miss your smile
I miss your breath
I miss your love
I miss you against

Against all odds
Against all sense
Against the world
United again
Receive your smile
Receive it again
