

When We Are Gone

Wynardtage

My Time's over
Eternity calls
I close my eyes and
Break through the walls

Float into this sparkling light
Pain is over, an ending fight

Detached from
Time and space
Now I'm lost
Without a trace

But nothing's really gone
Everything will stay
Just wait until the dawn
There always will be a new day

Cause when we are gone
Our marrow will descend
Life goes on
Cause there could never be an end

Eternity
Life is a never ending tragedy
Just open your eyes
And you will see
That everything around us will always be
Just energy

Now I am a part of life
Without borders
But no revive

There's no pain and agony
Only freedom
You will see

So don't bother and let me go
I am happy
That's what you know

It's the end and I am free
In your heart
I will always be

Detached from
Time and space
Now I'm lost
Without a trace

But nothing's really gone
Everything will stay
Just wait until the dawn
There always will be a new day
