

He Thinks I Love Him

Wynette Tammy

He thinks he owns my body heart and soul
He thinks his kisses keep me in his control

He tries so hard to make me understand
Or that I'd be lost without his guiding hand

He tells me don't go any place alone
He always wants me there when he gets home

He thinks that I should please him
Tell the truth I think so too

Cause most of all he thinks I love him
And I do

Sometimes I wonder why I go on trying to please him
But when he tells me I met with love
And I'm so proud of him

I know he wouldn't say those things if he didn't love me too
Cause most of all he thinks I love him and I do

Cause most of all he thinks I love him and I do
