Wynette Tammy

Yearning to be with the one I can't agree with yearning to hear you call my name
Like a fool I left you and now I can't forget you please forgiv

I'll never be the same without you darling you'll always be my

Now I'm yearning to kiss you oh darling how I miss you I wish that we could make commance sweetheart

Yearning to hold you and let my arms unfold you yearning to hea r you call my name Yearning to kiss you oh darling how I'll miss you oh how I wish you felt the same
I never knew how much you cared about me I thought you were foo lin' me
Oh how I wish you felt the same
