

Ain't No Thing

Wynonna Judd

I could get feeling down, I could cruise downtown
Find a good place to cry, drink a bottle dry
I could sing, closing time, I could ease my mind
And all those little honky tonk joys
Baby, what's the point?

Ain't no thing, ain't no thing
I'm standing in the pouring rain
And like I've never been here before
I'm just here again
Ain't no thing, ain't no thing
So you're leaving like a long freight train
If I even cry at all, that would be a crying shame
The sky ain't gonna fall, baby
You know it ain't no thing

Don't feel sorry, don't feel sad, don't feel bad
By the way, you had to break my heart in two?
I got news for you
Psst, it's okay, it's alright
In fact, there's nothing that's quite like being me
There's other fishes in the sea

Ain't no thing, ain't no thing
I'm standing in the pouring rain
And like I've never been here before
I'm just here again
Ain't no thing, ain't no thing
So you're leaving like a long freight train
If I even cry at all, that would be a crying shame
Oh, the sky ain't gonna fall, honey
You know it ain't no thing

Ain't no thing, ain't no thing
So I'm standing in the pouring rain
And like I've never been here before
I'm just here again
Ain't no thing, ain't no thing
So you're leaving like a long freight train
If I even cry at all, that'll be a crying shame
Oh, the sky ain't gonna fall, honey
You know you...
