

Deathless and Divine

Xentrix

Disgust is never ending
I'll cut to bitter truth and I don't care
Blackness impending
In truth the fact is I'm beyond prepared
In desolation
The panicked ruthless stamp their feet once more
My choice will haunt me
You slit my throat, I vow to haunt you more

A secondary path into the mind
Asleep in the wake of decline

Face down the rain
No more tears will fall
Not much to contemplate
Nothing left, nothing left to lose
Give up my soul
A darkness fills my eyes
No longer in control
All fear has gone
I'm deathless and divine

Fear harbors power
Exchange futility for bleak divide
Release inferno
Supercharge the voice that screams inside
Drown the unknown
Precipitate my plague, my thirst subsides
This curse will save me
I am the architect of cruel demise

I'm treading down a path into the mind
Approaching the end of the line

Face down the rain
No more tears will fall
Not much to contemplate
Give up my soul
A darkness fills my eyes
No longer in control
All fear has gone
I'm deathless and divine
