

The Truth Lies Buried

Xentrix

Shrouded in hate
Warring for peace
Blood for blood is all there can be rebellions will fall
Legions will fall
Blacken the sky eternally

The faceless will fight
Exchanging everyday to incite
Killing power in their hands
Hands, hearts and minds

The truth lies buried deep in the soul
Humanities threat takes it's toll
Humanity sees they're brought to their knees
An evil reappears from the past
A darkness that drowns those who last
Drowns those who last.

Guiltless will fall
Clean blood will spill
Voices crying out for "no more"
Freedom will end
Fear will be king
Steel and pain will settle the score

Chaos and lies
Powers now accused just deny
Many await for the end
The Iron fist to fall

The truth lies buried deep in the soul
Humanities threat takes it's toll
Humanity sees they're brought to their knees
An evil reappears from the past
A darkness that drowns those who last
Drowns those who last.
