

Stupid in the Dark

Xiu Xiu

When you showed me your photo
You looked so impeccable
As I would surely see
But I wish I'd said it once to you

You taught me a lesson
People are stupid in the dark
You put my disgrace in the moonlight
People are just what they have
Dumb and half blind, dumb and half blind
In the moonlight

Pull up and go, and give me more money
Give me your phone, you can keep your idea
For an attempt to simply reach as I push it down
Once we felt sorry for you, people
But not that sorry

You taught me a lesson
People are stupid in the dark
You put my disgrace in the moonlight
People are just what they have
Dumb and half blind, dumb and half blind
In the moonlight
