Tonight is anything Goodbye to anything Outside of anything Collide with everything

Ring a xadong ding ding Down on your knees Ring a ding ding ding Swallow defeat Relief again Ding ding dong ding

Wondering, maybe? Wondering, maybe? Wondering, maybe? Wondering Wondering

There's not a chance, there's never been Destroyed by color on the wind It is so clear it is so clean And unforgivably obscene

Alive is anything
Alight to anything
Denied of anything
Surprised with everything

Oh, love was stronger then
Life went on without end
Now to feel the sun
Burn our rights and wrongs
The shock of ash upon hope and peace

There's not a dance that's never been Jealous of envy on the wind It is plain it is so pure And unforgivably obscure
