

In Our Minds

Yann Tiersen

In our minds, They're a town in our minds
A town we go to sometimes,
A town we know just in our minds.

With different people, Living different life's
In different streets, Under a different sky.

How can we know, How far we go,
How can we know, How far we go.

In our minds, They're a town in our minds
A town we go to sometimes,
A town we know just in our minds.

With different people, Living different life's
In different streets, Under a different sky.
