

D.E.A.D.

Yashin

I've got something to say, so listen closely
Under my skin there's something happening
I lost all sense of control
I don't remember how to sing these songs
I don't belong
Easy you're seating with me
I speak with nothing to say
Have I known all along that we would rise to fall
I can't say a word unless I'm told

Every day is another day old

(How does this play out)
Feels like I'm buried alive and I can't fly
Feels like the harder I try I sink down to nothing, D.E.A.D.

So raise your glass my friends
Let's make a toast to the future
We'll stain the streets with our blood
I'll tell this face what's mine
I'm sick, sick of wondering why
I can't say a word unless I'm told

Every day is another day old

Feels like I'm buried alive and I can't fly
Feels like the harder I try I sink down to nothing
Lying six feet down, time is running out for me, D.E.A.D.
Tired on the eyes, I don't see a life for me, D.E.A.D.

Now lose your shit

Do you really want to live forever, forever, forever young? (2x
)

I don't remember how to sing these songs? I don't belong. (2x)

Feels like I'm buried alive and I can't fly
Feels like the harder I try I sink down to nothing
Lying six feet down, time is running out for me, D.E.A.D.
Tired on the eyes I don't see a life for me, D.E.A.D.
