

To The Clouds

Years Since The Storm

The journey to the clouds begins now!
It's time that I ascend from the darkness.
You are ordinary, and you won't get my sympathy.
Call me vain,
Call me selfish,
Call me arrogant.
But I have come to find,
That...

YOU'RE INSIGNIFICANT!

And you will never get,
My sympathy.
'Cause life is beautiful!
You treat it like a curse,
Though life is beautiful.

But so much ugliness surrounds me.
Built up rage and negativity.
Searching for some peace of mind.
A novelty that's so hard to find.

We're building an army to bring you back down to Earth.
Is there anybody with us?

Your life is not as important,
As you make it out to be.

We're building an army to bring you back down to Earth.
Is there anybody with us?

'Cause so much ugliness surrounds me.
Built up rage and negativity.
Searching for some peace of mind.
A novelty that's so hard to find.

So much ugliness surrounds me.
Times like these can go on forever,
I won't let this go on forever.

So much ugliness surrounds me.
Times like these can go on forever,
I won't let this go on forever.

Your time,
Your time is up.
You are a blister to this world,
And I'm taking names!

Too much ugliness surrounds me.
A world full of negativity.
I will one day find some peace of mind.
This novelty that's so fucking hard to find!

So this time I'm calling you out.
You spread your words like a train that's off its tracks.
I remember every single name and face.

And I'm not here to make peace with anyone!

Your time is up!

We're building an army to bring you back down to Earth.
Down to Earth!

The journey to the clouds begins now!
It's time that I ascend from the darkness.
You are ordinary, and you won't get my sympathy.
Call me vain,
Call me selfish,
Call me arrogant,
But I have come to find,
YOU'RE INSIGNIFICANT!
